Sam Pio

Biography:

Sam Pio is a divinely-gifted Christian singer, worship leader and mini preacher who is up-and-coming as an emerging artist in the Christian Gospel Music & Film Industry. She brings an angelic, spirit-filled message of hope, love and light through both her singing and acting. A path that has been devinely created, Sam keeps adding accolade after accolade and performances that artists spend a career building up to; many never achieving. Despite her young age, she has performed with Lauren Daigle, the Goo Goo Dolls, Kari and Cody Carnes with performances across the country highlighted by performances on Broadway, at Carnegie Hall and at the Kennedy Center! Her original music has been featured on television shows and yet with all of her success, her essence remains the same: "I want to bring joy, to be the light in a dark world," says Sam. "Being a celebrity is my worst nightmare. I want to be a missionary. There are so many people who don't know Jesus, but I'm going to change that."

Sam has lived an incredible life that has provided her with experience in musical theater, commercials, films, and numerous music videos. She has released original music including her debut album "Be Blessed," along with covers that amassed over 1 million spotify streams.

Music and film has been a platform that Sam has built with one mission, evangelize! Her ultimate goal in life is to minister to people, Jesus. She founded "Live for Jesus Ministry" to fulfil her destiny and remains an active leader and minister.

Sam's Music:

Sam has amassed an incredible discography for someone of her age. Her passion is spreading her message and invites you to hear her selection of angelic covers and original works. With more music ready to be released, 2026 and beyond are promising that her fan-base will continue to grow in both numbers and personal strength and conviction!
